We couldn’t be more excited and would like to warmly welcome you to re:publica Berlin in May 2017, we launched re:connecting Europe as an idea forum for exchanging ideas and networking between and with the representatives of public and private industries. This endeavour was made possible thanks to the support of the German Federal Foreign Office. At re:publica Berlin in May 2017, we launched re:connecting Europe in order to promote the development of a Europe-wide network of positive forces and create room for an active dialogue and exchange of ideas, visions and experiences. We look forward to seeing you there – let’s celebrate the diversity of Digital Europe!

The effects of digitisation on the economy, politics and society have long been European. The digitalisation of society and the economy has and is changing the way we live, work, consume and interact. We are facing new challenges and opportunities on a global scale. The re:connecting Europe space is a venue for exchange of narratives and workshops between Dublin and Thessaloniki, and will be part of the #rpTHE programme.
